

Arts & Sciences Competition Rules and Regulations for the Kingdom of Atenveldt:

Youth and Children's Divisions

Revised April 2010 CE

NOTE: This year the Youth and Children's Division rules have been published separately as an addendum to the Arts & Sciences Competition Rules and Regulations for the Kingdom of Atenveldt. In years following these rule sets may be recombined. As these are considered an addendum to the "adult" rules, in some cases the Youth and Children's Division rules indicate where rule differences should be noted, and all abbreviations and acronyms are drawn from those used in the main Competition rules.

Due to the severe lack of entries in both the Youth and Children's Divisions during the past few calendar years, the Youth and Children's Division will be active or inactive for that years Kingdom A&S Competition depending on the number of Youth and Children Pre-Registrations received for that year.
